

Howdy!

Hailing from the land of Denmark, this clown-like illustrator and self-described “Art Jock” is a non-binary art graduate, with a powerful curiosity and a spirit of upbeat haste.

Dancing through the deluge, Margo’s sincere love for everything and everyone has them optimistic in the face of looming calamity, remaining swift and flexible. Margo pursues their own film series, to teach and entertain, showing all that life has to offer!

Work

Experience

Headway Charity Shop

Dec 2016 – Dec 2017

I contributed 300+ hours, processing dozens of clothing items, books and valuables each day, managing shop storefront, training new volunteers, and preventing theft from swift and sly customers

CW Projects Ltd

June 2016 - July 2016

Experience involved design & layout of interiors and experience with associated tools. Research included interior construction and layout techniques, and colour theory

Nottingham Playhouse – Primary Partners advert

Feb 2021 – June 2021

Developed character design and traditional animation, including 38 unique character designs. During peak-pandemic times, disputes over workload arose between other team-members. Working efficiently and with a knack for fast-paced work, I had finished my work ahead of schedule. To ensure the well-being of the team, and the completion of the project before the deadline, I comfortably took on much of other’s workload. +430% additional animation work was taken on, earning me a 1st at University.

Skills & Achievements

Swift production of fluid illustrations, with expressive posing, detailed lighting and perspective.

Figure-drawing has been described as variations on “literally perfect” by four different art instructors.

Amicable, humorous, and genuine. Consoling and crisis management are abilities of mine.

Hobbies

Tabletop Games. These have built up my skills writing, acting, creative problem-solving, and team management.

Clowning. With comedy and theatre, I adore bringing joy, laughter, and all manner of emotions to folks.

Sports. I do weekly acrobatics and badminton. I enjoy keeping flexible, agile and reactive, with quick concise communication between teammates.

Fashion. Costume design influences my character art. I pride myself on style, and even sew clothes.
